GLOWING SUMMER MAKEUP LOOK

Hi everyone,

I'm sure you must have noticed that I am posting every single day this week. I have so much pending & I want to get over with lots of work on time. It's quite hectic but has to be done. Coming on to today's post, in summers, I usually like to keep my makeup as minimal as possible. I don't want to look overdone in terms of my makeup which is why I usually opt for this kind of look.

It's a fresh, glowing summer makeup that is easy to do & makes me look radiant even on hot & humid days. The breakdown has been listed below.
