Summer Lip Color with NUDESTIX

Cruelty Free Lip and Cheek Balm

If you are on the hunt for a fabulous, straightforward approach to makeup, then look no further than NUDESTIX. This cruelty free brand has made crayons fun again for the makeup loving gal, by having a simple to use collection for eyes, lips and face. NUDESTIX hits the mark with on trend looks, while keeping makeup easy and natural looking. The latest product they released is their NUDESTIX Gel Color Lip + Cheek Balm that's got me craving more!

Eight lip-enhancing colors that glide on silky smooth semi-gloss color, with perfect timing to create new, fresh Summer looks. I actually have a couple colors in my arsenal already and have been using them frequently because they allow for a pulled together – “but not too much” look with its balmy look and feel. The color stays longer on the lips than a typical lip balm, and serves a secondary purpose as a cheek color. I personally don't use these for cheek color, but for those who like multi-purpose makeup this is a great way to cut down on clutter.

The formula of these gel based crayons are made to moisturize with a unique blend of plant based lipids that keep lips healthy and supple. Vitamin E acts as the main antioxidant serving to protect the delicate skin of the lips.

The two colors swatched here are Posh and Rebel. Posh is described as a plum nude with a slight metallic sheen to it. Rebel is more of a barbie pink. Out of these two, Rebel shows up better on my lips and gives them the perfect wet but not sticky-glossy look. You can find all the colors at your local Sephora.

Each NUDESTIX is housed in a cute, collectible mirrored tin with a sharpener included that makes traveling with your makeup kit clean and accessible. Forget dragging a dirty makeup bag around! Why bother when you can fit a lip crayon, eyeliner and shadow, contour and highlight and blemish stick all in a tin or two without powders exploding or caps coming off traditional lipsticks. Clean and compact is what it's all about.

To find out more about NUDESTIX you can visit their website or follow them on Instagram, Facebook or Twitter for daily tips and new releases.
