NUDESTIX AND CAULIFLOWER RICE.

My Monday morning was proudly brought to you by the following sponsors....

Fisherman's Friend lozenges for that scratchy throat that needed to get through 5 hours of talking without a coughing fit, coffee (of course) and ... Nudestix lip + cheek pencil in the shade Mystic.

I'm both loving and hating that this GWP I received with my Sephora order is working so well for me. Mystic is a kind of plum that applies with a rich glossy finish on the lips and lasts for a good 5 hours on me. I haven't tried it properly on my cheeks but apparently they can be used as a cheek stain. Some variations of Nudestix are dual ended with a matching creamier shade for the cheeks.

The only downside I can see is the price. $35 on the Sephora site and many of the shades I was interested in are currently out of stock. Blessing in disguise.
