

NUDESTIX

AUGUST 18, 2016

August Vibes

From [un]official fashion week merchandise and a few life changing beauty products to a new Instagram account you need to follow...here's the ten things I'm obsessing over this month.

BEAUTY:

If you follow me on Snapchat (or I guess Instagram Stories now...seriously what's up with that?) you probably already know about my new found love for Nudestix. I feel like I've posted about it so much that it seems like they're paying me to do it, when in reality they are not. I must have read about the brand somewhere recently and I love the idea (everything comes in stick form, meaning no tools / brushes required). I'm all about an easy makeup routine (considering my makeup skills are subpar at best) and it really doesn't get easier than this. I literally want every single pencil they make but I started with the Blur Pencil (I don't really have fine lines yet but every once in a while I see one on my forehead and I'm hoping this will make that sucker disappear), Brow Wax (I use it with my Glossier Boy Brow for an even stronger brow game), the Intense Matte Lip & Cheek Pencil as well as the Gel Lip & Cheek Pencil (depends if I want more of a glossy or matte look that day). Next on my list? Literally everything...but if I had to choose, I'm thinking the Sheer Eye Color or Bronzing Pencil.
