New In With Nudestix

Monday, 25 July 2016

There's nothing I love more than finding a new brand, especially one that has incredible products! So when the lovely people at Look Fantastic got in touch about reviewing some of their brand new Nudestix, I was very excited to see what was in store.

In all honesty, I wasn't sure what to expect at all. I thought maybe they'd all be concealers or foundations, but when they turned up I was surprised to discover just the one concealer stick and the others were lip/cheek duos. From the onset, I immediately fell in love. Each stick comes in its own little black tin, along with its very own pencil sharpener, so you don't have to worry about finding one the right size. The tins are also perfect if you're looking for a gift, as they practically wrap themselves.

Starting with the concealer stick, I've always been a bit dubious about having a concealer that's not in liquid form, but this one definitely has its perks. It's super smooth and creamy when applied to the skin and blends extremely well. I probably wouldn't use it as much as my regular concealer, but it's perfect for the extra touch ups that are often required once the base is complete.

| 'Whisper' | 'Light 3'

Now, the thing that I absolutely ADORE are the lip/cheek sticks. I received two of their Intense Matte Lip + Cheeky Pencils and one of their regular Lip + Cheek Pencils. As you can tell, the packaging is slightly different between the two, with the regular pencil giving a similar resemblance to the concealer stick. All three Nudestix are incredibly creamy on the lips and not drying at all. I probably love the Intense Matte pencils just a little bit more, but this may be because of the shades! My favourite has to be 'Kiss', a stunning deep pinky nude that is totally up my street. The sticks are all super pigmented and long lasting too, giving that perfect matte finish that everyone is after nowadays.

Let me know in the comments if you've tried anything from the Nudestix range. Look Fantastic have kindly given me a discount code for 10% off the range as well, using the code NUDE10 sohead on over!
