NEW SPA ALERT IN PACIFIC PALISADES: SKINX FIVE BY DR. AVA SHAMBAN

october 23, 2016 | Natasha Barrett

When you want to feel rested, you escape to the spa. When you want results, you make an appointment with the dermatologist. If only there was a destination where you could pop in on your lunch break and emerge an hour later feeling relaxed, restored and looking ten year younger. Now there is!

With SkinxFive (skin-times-five), Dr. Ava Shamban — one of L.A.'s most renowned celebrity dermatologists (and a GLA top doc!) — has created just that. Designed to combat the five signs of aging, SkinxFive offers five tech-driven dermatologist-designed treatments for fighting dullness, dehydration, lines, pigmentation and acne-prone skin at every age... all with little or no down time. Think of SkinxFive as Dry Bar for you skin.

I recently tried SkinxFive, based in the Pacific Palisades, and can personally attest — SkinxFive is the real deal. The five treatments offered include The Refresher, The Infuser, The Lineless, The Spotless and The Firminator — plus a selection of customizations and add-ons. In desperate need of a deep-down cleaning and boost for my dull, dry skin, I opted for a customized Refresher (a custom light peel) and Infuser (an infusing microdermabrasion facial). The results were immediate and I emerged 90 minutes later, relaxed and glowing with no redness, no need to hide from the world. My skin was plump and dewy and I was recharged and ready to re-enter the day.

With prices starting at $49, run don't walk.

Protect what you've got. Correct what you've lost. Love yourself more.
