2016 Holiday Gift Guide

I'm excited to share this year's 2016 Holiday Gift Guide! Many of these gifts I have personally owned for years and years. Some gifts I have been given the opportunity to try out and review. All of the gifts are awesome. This year we've added a fun category called "Book Gift Ideas." If you are a book nerd like me, make sure you scroll down and check it out! And, keep checking back because I will be updating this 2016 Holiday Gift daily through the month of November and December!

NUDESTIX Nude(Art)ist Kit

NUDESTIX has launched 6 brand new mini, limited edition, and large kits with some of their all-time-favorite Magnetic Eye and Lip + Cheek shades and textures! Packed with skin-saving vitamins, antioxidants, and moisturizers, the line was created by Jenny Frankel, a chemical engineer previously at MAC and Cover FX, and her daughters, Ally and Taylor, who are the young faces of the brand. The brand's motto, #GoNudeButBetter, encourages enhancing your best features with that natural makeup look.
