Nudestix Nudies All Over Face Color Bronze + Glow Will Become Your New Favorite Highlighter

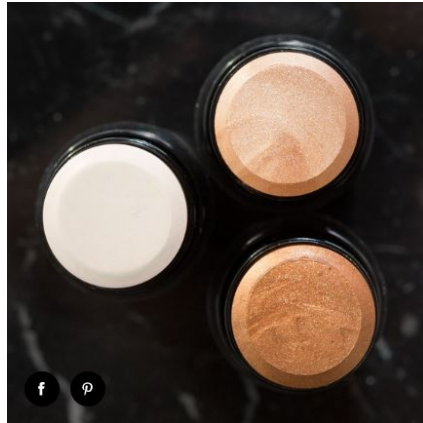

By: Elizabeth Denton – March 8, 2017

If you ask us, you can never have too much highlighter. That's why we're so stoked about Nudestix Nudies All Over Face Color Bronze + Glow. The women-owned company (it is International Women's Day after all) recently launched Nudies All Over Face Color—water-resistant sticks in super-wearable matte shades made to be worn on your eyes, lips, and cheeks. The new Bronze + Glow hues are in the same packaging, but aren't matte at all. Instead, these are made to give you a laid-back glow like you just came back from the beach, or you know, a winter wonderland vacation.

There are three shades to choose from: Illumi-Naughty, a purple-y pearl; Hey, Honey, a gold; and Brown Sugar, Baby, a deeper bronze. Just like the matte hues, Bronze + Glow has the balm-like formula on one side, and a blending brush on the other. I tried them all, and the formula blends with your fingers pretty easily, but it's still really convenient to have a brush in your hand for some extra blending action. I honestly can't decide which shade is my favorite because I would wear each one in totally different situations, like Illumi-Naughty for daytime and Brown Sugar, Baby for a night out.

NUDESTIX

Like all of Nudestix's "you, only better" products, the Bronze + Glow highlighters are on the more subtle side. You won't look like a disco ball with these hues. Still, I was in an extra-glowy mood and layered Illumi-Naughty on a little heavier than the first time I tried it, and it made it much more bold. They're really buildable and perfect for whatever mood you find yourself in that day. (Natural or bold—no makeup shame!)

The Nudestix Nudies All Over Face Color Bronze + Glow retails for $30 each, and will be available on sephora.com later today.
