7 Hacks That Will Give You Instagram-Worthy Brows In Seconds

NudeStix's Taylor Frankel shows you exactly what to do so your pics get ALL the likes.

Sometimes, okay ALL the time, you don't have the time or energy to spend more than five minutes on your makeup — and that includes your eyebrows. So we teamed up with NudeStix's co-creator Taylor Frankel to show you seven genius ways to get killer brows in seconds.
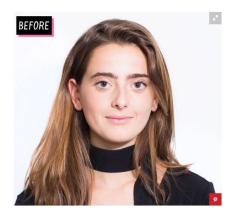

Fill in your brows with an eyebrow pencil for a full effect. It doesn't have to take more than 60 seconds to fill in your brows. All you have to do is start from the arch, and pencil them in going in the opposite direction, towards the start of your brow. This fills in those "hard to get" sparse areas.

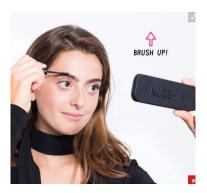

The more sparse areas you fill in, the bolder your brows will look.

2. Use eyebrow gel and a spoolie to brush your brows up, which will make you look more awake. When you don't have time to fill in your brows, this will make them look neat, full, and put-together.

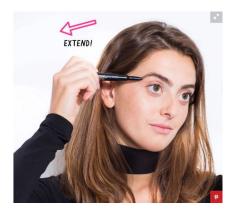

Apply the gel, and then brush your brows upwards and over, while the gel is still wet.

It's an easy way to look like you slept a full nine hours.

3. Extend your brow line with pencil for a bolder look. Instead of stopping at the outside corner of your eye, extend your brow just a half an inch longer.

It's an edgier look that's guaranteed to get all the likes.

4. Pencil in the front of your brows with upward strokes to fake a feathered look. One way to get Cara Delevigne-style brows is to add feathering in the front. Since most people don't naturally have brows that are fuller in the front, you can use a pencil to fake the look.
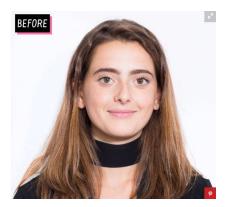

With an angled brow pencil, draw short lines until you reach the iris of your eye, using up and down strokes.

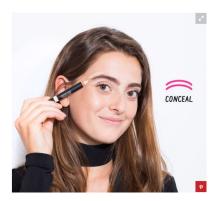

You'll get that covetable full-brow look without spending a ton of time.

5. Apply concealer above and below your brows to make them really stand out. Kylie Jenner loves this trick!

Apply concealer one shade lighter than the rest of your face above and below your brows. Focus on the center of your arch to the ends of your brows.

Blend with your finger or a Beauty Blender.
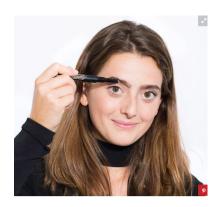

This makes your eyebrows seriously stand out.

6. Use coconut oil to soften brows and make them look put-together. If your eyebrows have a case of bed head, coconut oil will smooth them into place and still look super natural.

Oil softens the hair, so it lays nicely and prevents gaps from forming.

7. Draw a line underneath your brows with pencil for major drama. Start from under the front of your brows and draw a line all the way to the end. It's like lining your eyes, but instead it's your brows.

This will make create a seriously bold look. Watch out, Zendaya.
