Nudestix's Nudies Glow Sticks Will Make It Look Like You Just Had A Really Good Facial

March 9, 2017 | By Heather Cichowski

Super strobed skin is a favorite on Instagram, but in real life, a lot of us want that healthy lit-from-within glow. Some people try to get it by guzzling gallons of green juice and having regular facials, but Nudestix is making it a lot easier to get a radiant look Nudestix is all about that me-but-enhanced makeup look. If you've ever used one of the brand's lip colors or chubby face pencils, you will know that it's nigh impossible to overdo it with the color. The latest launch is no exception.

NUDESTIX

The Nudies Glow All-Over Face Color Bronzer + Highlighter sticks complement Nudestix's range of matte Nudies All-Over Face Color. If you love a pop of color on your face, apply one of the matte options then add a soft highlight with the Nudies Glow stick.

The Nudies Glow stick are available in three colors: Hey, Honey (gold), Brown Sugar, Baby (bronzer) and Illumi-Naughty (pearl). Like their matte sisters, the three new shades have a balm-like formula that's easy to blend. You can use your fingers to easily smudge in the color or you can use the brush on the back of the stick.

You can get your (Nudies) Glow on now because the Nudestix Nudies Glow All-Over Color Bronze + Glow sticks launch today exclusively at Sephora and they sell for $30 each.
