Dominican Republic Packing List: What to Pack for the Dominican Republic

Apr 24, 2017 | By: Patricia Magana

There's an adventure around every corner in the Dominican Republic—from snorkeling to horseback riding to sliding down waterfalls. Be ready by wearing the right clothing items and knowing what to pack for the Dominican Republic.

Dominican Republic Packing List: Quality Makeup

Few products can withstand the Caribbean humidity. Makeup, especially, gets Jackson Pollock on the face after the lightest of exertions—unless your Dominican Republic packing list includes a long-lasting, quality makeup product.

I put Nudestix's vegan line to the test, and I'm happy to report that the matte makeup stayed in place all day. Nudestix's entire lineup is ready for travel anytime as each piece comes in its own mini black tin. Plus, all the pencils come with their own sharpener.

Price & Where to Buy: From $24 at Sephora or at Nudestix's website.
