Mother's Day Gift Guide 2017

By: Stacie Hamilton | May 8, 2017

Mother's Day is FAST approaching!! Are you stumped on what to buy mom this Mother's Day? I have so many products on my own wish list that I know would make wonderful gifts for moms of all ages. I thought I'd share them here today in my Mother's Day Gift Guide so you can get your shopping done in a one stop spot.

You can actually shop from right here on my blog. Some of the links that I've used in this post are affiliate links. That just means that I earn a small commission on purchases that my readers make. You are not charged anything extra by using my links and it helps support all of the time and money that I put into this blog. So shop away and know that I really appreciate it!!

Nudestix – This brand has some fun lip pencils for mom. They come in a wide variety of colors and formulas. Their latest collection is called Magnetic Matte Lip Pencils and they're nice because they last a long time making touch-ups less frequent. I also love the Balm pencils that can be used on lips and cheeks. All of the products from the line come in a cute tin with a nice mirror and sharpener. This makes touch-ups on the go an easy task.
