MY EVERYDAY MAKEUP ROUTINE & REAL TALK | VIDEO

Olivia Frescura | May 3, 2017

Lately I've kind of left YouTube alone because I was feeling pretty uninspired. So, like I did a few months back, I thought I would just take through my makeup routine and kind of do a sort-of life update at the same time. I got REAL honest real quick and got into a lot of nitty gritty details about my life, so, if you're interested...feel free to watch while you get ready because it's a LONG one. I haven't reviewed all the products that I use on the regular yet, but here is a list of what I used in the video so you can check the products out for yourself if you're looking for that nearly-natural but still done up look.
