As Seventeen editors, we're always trying out new beauty products (we usually get our hands on them before they show up in your local Sephora). With so many lipsticks, foundations, and face masks to choose from, our favorites quickly become holy grail products that we simply will not live without. So we dug through our makeup bags, hair product stashes, and skincare hauls to let you know the products you'll wish you knew about sooner. Here are our picks...

6. NudeStix Eyebrow Stylus Pencil & Gel

ALISON CAPORIMO

I'm fairly lazy when it comes to my morning makeup routine, but I still want my brows to be ~on point~. I've tried all kinds of brow gels and pencils, but nothing works for me quite like the duo pencil from NudeStix. This two-in-one brow savior has a wand with lightly-tinted brow gel on one end and a creamy angled pencil on the other. The gel really keeps your brows in place and the square-tipped pencil helps create the perfect shape. I can't live without it. —Alison Caporimo
You can get it here for $24.
