

From frosted lips to visible lip liner, here are 15 lipstick trends from the '90s that are making a comeback

Courtney Leiva | June 19, 2017

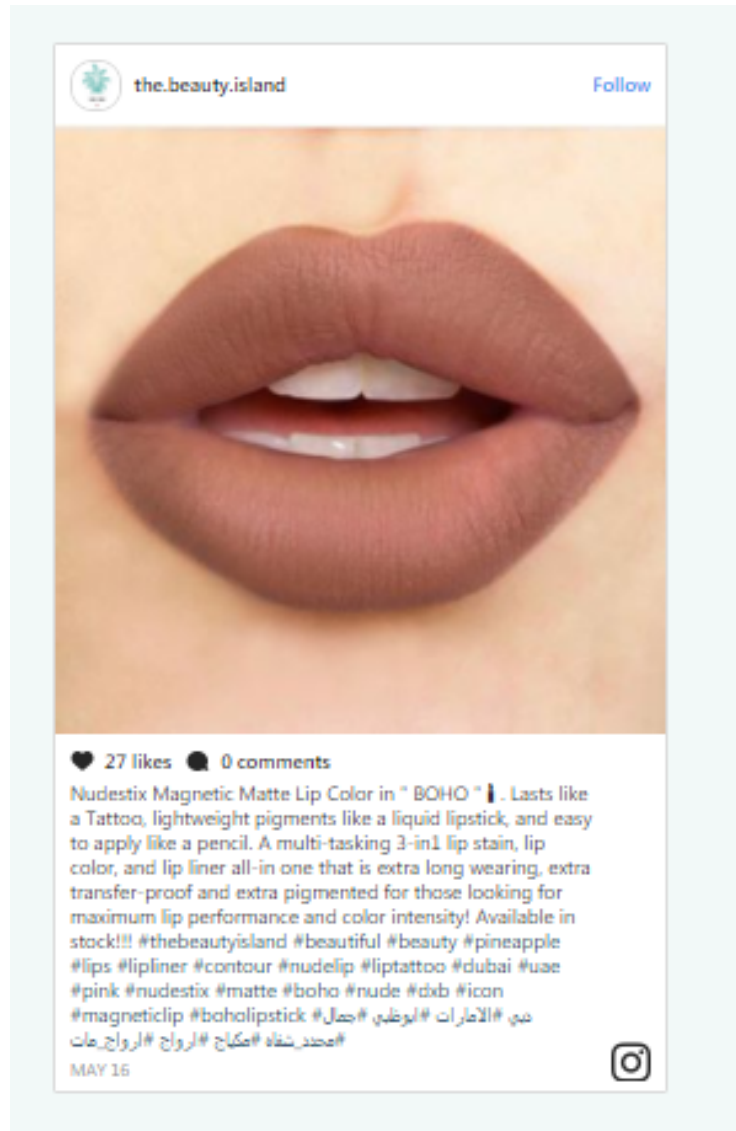

Sure we're all about bringing back chokers and crop tops, but if you are still feeling major '90s nostalgia, it never hurts to bring some retro beauty looks to your everyday routine. Aside from rocking butterfly clips, bold blue eyeshadow, and french tips, vintage lip looks are another way to bring back the '90s in a huge way, especially since they can help give off that edgy vibe seen on it-girls everywhere.

While we aren't exactly talking about Lip Smackers or those Kissing Koolers balms (remember those?) you probably had stashed in your backpack, we are talking about those looks you thought you left behind. But if you aren't exactly into dramatically lined lips, we've got other nostalgic lipstick looks that will have you feeling like a total Spice Girl.

From wearing your lips totally frosted to whipping out that spicy brown lipstick, here are 15 90s lipstick trends that are making a total comeback in 2017.

1. Lip Liner

Lip liner is one '90s beauty staple we are still loving in 2017. Be sure to select a slightly darker shade of liner to get that perfectly plump pout.

<http://hellogiggles.com/lipstick-trends-from-90s-making-comeback-in-2017/>