Not all neutral lip colors are created equal. The best ones are the secret to a “no makeup” makeup look. However, the wrong ones can wash you out completely. Nudestix's, lip products have a stellar reputation for managing to subtly enhance our lips and enlivening our complexions which is why we were very excited to hear that the brand is launching a Creators Palette ($59) filled with six ultra-flattering shades.

The palette is a collaboration between Nudestix and influencers @ssssamanthaa, @saythelees, @cydbee, @makeupbydg, @iamkareno, and @lynettecenee. Each of the influencers has created a lip pencil in Nudestix's Magnetic Matte Lip Color to reflect their personal style.

The colors include: @ssssamanthaa's Freckle (warm burgundy brown), @makeupbydg's Montaigne (matte nude brown), @lynettecenee's Sonoran: (matte boho brown) @saythelees's Go Girl: (soft matte coral nude), @iamkareno's Baby K: (matte coral), and @cydbee's Joyce (rich matte cocoa).

Each of the lip colors can be worn as a soft stain when lightly dabbed on with fingers. Or it they can be applied directly using the crayon for full pigment.

The Creators Palette is available now on Nudestix.com for $59. Be aware that it is limited-edition and it's valued at $168 so something tells us that it isn't going to be around long. Grab yours while you can.
